

SARATOGA
PEACE
WEEK
SEPT.21-27

Observing the UN International
Day of Peace with local events promoting peace at home, in the community and in the world!

Sunday, 9/21 9:30-10:30 Manifesting Peace, Listen to music, chant, pray, meditate, create prayer sticks, prayer shawls or peace collage cards. We will be in a heart-felt circle, bringing forward those we know who are feeling chaos, war, or despair. We will send peace and love to them while creating a representation of a new peaceful world. Bring your own materials if desired! PUCC 24 Circular St

Sunday, 9/21 12:30- Diana Ross's, "I'm Coming Out" Flash Mob, Learn the dance (by Emily Bergmann) online or learn it on site! Let the world know Saratoga supports our LGBTQ+ community! Dance will be recorded (so dress colorfully) and shown on "Coming Out" Day on Oct. 11th. Consider bringing a LGBTQ+ book to add to the Little Free Library. Co-sponsored by Saratoga Pride. Presbyterian United Church of Christ (PUCC) 24 Circular St

Sunday, 9/21 1-3:30pm Kites & Lites for Peace, with Saratoga Immigration Coalition and CREATE Studios. Community kite & lantern making and flying in support of peace, respect, equality, justice and diversity. Bring your own kite or make/decorate onsite with your own or supplied materials. Hudson Crossing Park, Co Rd 42, Schuylerville

Sunday, 9/21 7-9pm Crystal Bowersox, singer/songwriter, gained national attention as a runner up on American Idol. Instead of an intermission, Ms. Bowersox will discuss how domestic violence has touched her life with Maggie Fronk, CEO of Wellspring, a Saratoga resource center for domestic violence. Learn about their vital work and how we can all support survivors and safer communities. Tickets are required. Caffe Lena Crystal Bowersox: A Saratoga Peace Week Concert - Caffè Lena
